Nothing that is not already on the budget.

5. Membership Report:

3 new members from Mina.

We now have 29 current members.

Lots of discussion on how to improve the membership information.

6. Website Update:

The new website is not up yet. It is under development. Teresa has a private version that she is working on. By the next meeting Richard expects to have something to show the membership.

The website will be designed to change information easily.

7. Correspondence:

Nothing to report.

New Business:

Harvest Festival - Goldfield Elementary

Mr. Dilworth (teacher) stopped by to inform the Chamber of the the school activities that are coming up. He passed out fliers for these events.

The Harvest Festival is coming on Thursday October 25 at 6:30 - 9 pm. The school would like more community involvement. The school will be having games (arcade style) and a cake walk. He is asking for volunteers for the games and goodies for the cake walk.

Also, the Halloween parade: The kids will be walking up and down Crook Ave. from Columbia St. (GF Emporium) to the Palace. Mr. Dilworth is asking the businesses to have treats for the kids on Oct. 31. Details are in the letter that he passed out.

Mr. Dilworth also let the members know that there will be more activities in November. The president asked if he could come to the next meeting on Nov. 7 with the details. Mr. Dilworth agreed.

Patty Brownfield mentioned the concert at the Radio Station on Oct. 27. It is $30 per person, (dinner will include enchiladas, rice and beans).

The meeting was adjourned at 6:43 pm.

Next meeting will be Nov. 7 at 6 pm.
